PART 1

The children are sleeping. The window opens.

A fairy called Tinker Bell enters the room.

Then, a young boy enters the room, too.

‘Tink, where are you? Please, find my shadow.’ He says.

Tinker Bell finds his shadow in the drawer and gives it to him.

PART 2:

Peter tries to stick the shadow to his feet with soap, but he can't.

He cries. Wendy wakes up and sees the boy.

'Can I help you with your shadow?' Wendy asks.

'Yes, please!' says Peter.

Wendy sews on Peter's shadow.

Peter is very happy and dances.

'Oh, Wendy, you are wonderful!' says Peter.

PART 3:

'How old are you, Peter?' asks Wendy.

'I don't know, but I am young. I don't want to grow up.

I want to be a boy and have fun.'

Peter hears a noise and looks in a drawer.

Tinker Bell is there.

Wendy is happy to see a fairy, but Tinker Bell is afraid.

PART 4:

‘Where do you live, Peter?’ asks Wendy.

‘I live with the Lost Boys in Neverland,’ says Peter.

In Neverland we fight the pirates.

And fairies live in the trees.’

‘Oh, what fun!’ says Wendy.

PART 5:

‘Oh, I must go and tell the Lost Boys a story!’ says Peter.

‘Don’t go! I know a lot of stories,’ says Wendy.

‘Then come with me, Wendy. You can tell us stories.

We all want a mother!’ says Peter.

‘But I can’t fly,’ says Wendy.

‘I can teach you to fly,’ says Peter.

PART 6:

John and Michael wake up. They are surprised to see Peter.

‘We can go with Peter to Neverland.

But first we must learn to fly,' Wendy says.

They are excited. They try to fly but they fall on the beds.

Peter puts some fairy dust on their shoulders.

'Look, we can fly!,' says Wendy.

'Tink, show us the way to Neverland,' says Peter.

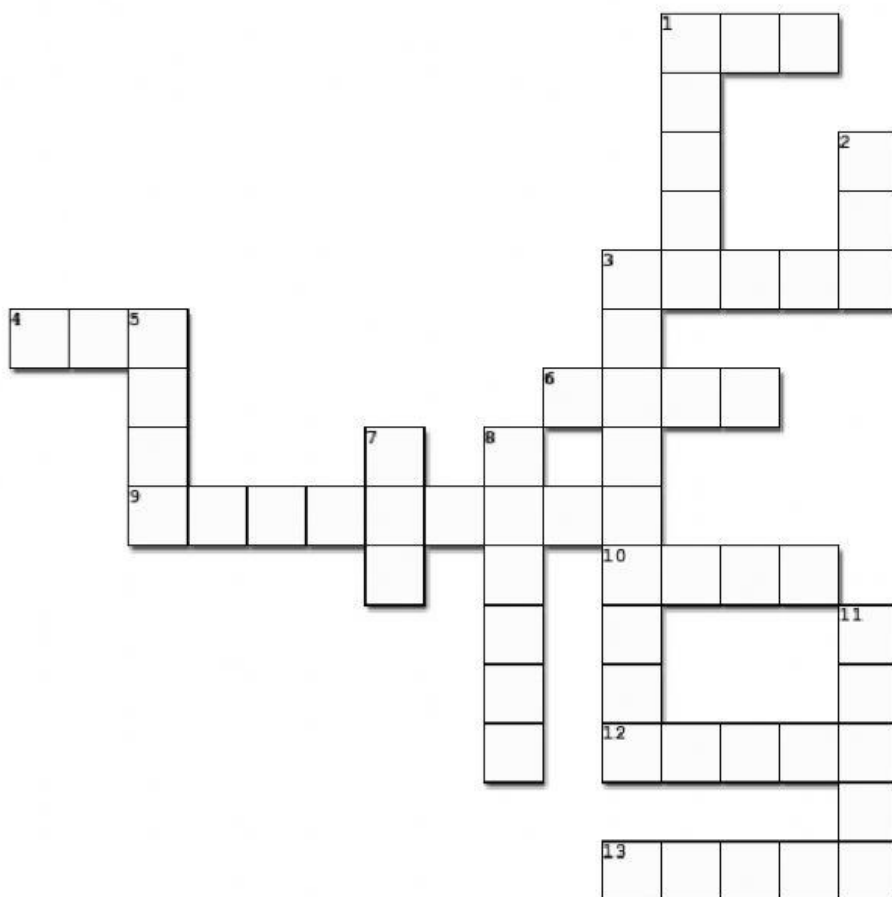

They follow Tinker Bell and fly out.

In the garden Nana barks.

Mr and Mrs Darling return from the dinner party.

They go into the bedroom, but it's empty!
