Look at the sentences and read about commas, exclamation marks and question marks.

Chairs, lamps, small tables, a big bed – all in good condition. Not expensive!
How much are they?
, = comma ! = exclamation mark ? = question mark

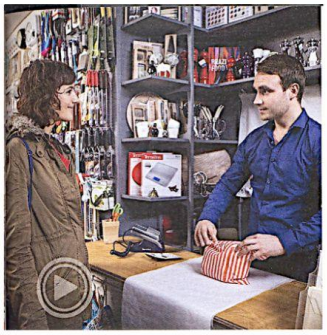

Commas
- We use commas in lists of nouns (things or people).
  *Books for learning English – dictionaries, grammar books, coursebooks
- We often finish a list with and + noun. We don't use a comma before and in lists.
  I need a chair, a bed and a lamp.

Exclamation marks
- We use exclamation marks to mean Look at this or This is important.
  Not expensive!

Question marks
- We use question marks at the end of questions.
  How much are they?

Add question mark (?) or an exclamation mark (!) to each sentence.

1 How old are these things
2 Thank you
