

What do you use the Internet for?

A) Read and find some of the things you can do on the Internet

Hi! I'm Rob O'Dell. I come from Los Angeles in the United States. I like playing computer games on the internet. I play with friends from school, and with friends from different countries too.

Hi! My name is Sandee Thompson. I'm from Toronto in Canada. I use the internet to send emails, and to chat in chat rooms. I use my webcam, mike, and speakers to talk with and see my friends on video too.

Hello. I'm Jenny Marsh. I come from Cape Town in South Africa. I like buying things on the internet - mostly books and DVDs. My mum pays for them with her credit card.

My name is Scott Hickey. I'm from Perth in Australia. I use the internet to help me study and do my homework. I find information with Google and on websites like Wikipedia (the internet encyclopedia).

I'm Amy Wilson. I'm from Oxford in England. I like listening to music on the internet. I like watching some of the home-made videos on YouTube and sending my favourite photos to my friends by email too.

Hi there. I'm Dave Knox. I live in New Zealand. I like writing a 'blog'. (That's short for 'Web log'.) That means I write every day on the internet about my life. People can read my blog and learn about me. It's great.
