Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct answer to each of the questions

Approximately, one in two thousand people in Vietnam has a significant hearing loss. Students who have been deafened in early childhood can be very different from students who have lost hearing later in life in terms of educational disadvantage. For example, their range of vocabulary may be limited, which in turn may affect their level of English literacy.

Deaf and hard of hearing students can sometimes prefer visual learning strategies. This can be a challenge in an environment where much essential information is delivered exclusively by word of mouth.

Students with a hearing loss may need to use assistive technology to participate in class. This technology can be the laptop where software such as Skype can be used to deliver interpreters or captioning. For some, it will be in the form of listening devices. For others, it will be a combination of technology that includes both listening devices and computer based software.

The impact of hearing loss can cause delays in receiving learning material. Students who need information transcribed from tape must sometimes wait for a period of time for this to happen. This needs to be considered in terms of developing suitable timelines for the completion of work for each student.

Students with a hearing loss may appear isolated in the learning environment. The possibility for social contact and interaction with other students is often limited and this isolation or separateness may have an impact on learning. Participation and interaction in tutorials may be limited. Students who cannot hear the flow and nuances of rapid verbal exchange will be at a disadvantage.

Câu 34. According to the reading text, all of the following are true EXCEPT that_____.

A. Deaf students can't complete their tasks in class

Câu 36. The word "tutorials" in line 16 can be best replaced by_____.

A. competitors B. lectures C. vocabulary D. lecturers

Câu 37. According to the reading text, students who have been deafened in early childhood can be very different from students who have lost hearing later in life because_____.

A. They have less advantage in English literacy

B. They have more advantage in English literacy

C. Their vocabulary is good enough to enhance their English level

D. Their range of words is limited but it doesn't matter.

Câu 38. Assistive technology can help students with a hearing loss_____.

A. better integrate into the study environment

B. understand more about the software

C. use Skype to talk to interpreters

D. use listening devices to gain more hearing ability

Mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the sentence that best combines each pair of sentences in the following questions.
