Extra Reading Unit 9

Insects for Food!!! I can't believe it!

People don't like insects. But in some countries, people like to eat insects.

In Thailand, bugs are snack food like chips. People eat worms and grasshoppers. Grasshoppers taste salty.
In Africa, people make bread and meals with insects. They taste like chicken.
In many countries like Switzerland, there are now insects in the supermarket!

We eat insects all the time, but we don't know it. There are insects in our ketchup. When tomatoes are made into ketchup, some bugs may be in them. Sometimes, we can eat an insect by chance when we ride our bike! It is not so terrible! Do you want to eat insects? Would you eat an insect in chocolate? There are now chocolates with insects in them.
