III. WORD FORM

Use the word given in Capitals at the end of each line to form a word that fits in the space in the same line. There is an example at the beginning (0).

A university education is expensive. You can borrow money from a bank, but if you do so, you will have to pay it back when you start working. In some countries you are not (0) obliged (OBLIGE) to start making repayments until your salary is above a certain level, but you can't put it off forever! This means that a (1) (FAIR) _____ large proportion of your (2) (EARN) _____ will have to go towards paying back your loan in the years after you graduate. (3) (ALTER) _____, you can try to work and study at the same time; you will get the education you want, and earn the money to pay for it. Does this sound ideal? Before you embark on such a course, there are some things you should bear in mind.

By combining work and studies, you will have an advantage over full-time students. Yes, their timetable will be less full than yours, but you will have one thing they don't experience. If you are studying a subject (4) (RELATE) _____ to your work, your real- life experiences in the workplace will help you understand the subject (5) (WELL) _____ . But even if your work is (6) (RELATE) _____ to your studies, you will still learn a lot about balancing tasks, (7) (CO-OPERATE) _____ with others, and so on.

Of course, working and studying at the same time can be (8) (STRESS) _____ , and time management is very important. Make a plan for each day and each week - and stick to it! Set yourself goals, like completing your (9) (ASSIGN) _____ by tonight, or finishing a task at work by lunchtime, and then give yourself a small reward for achieving it. Buy yourself a chocolate bar, go cycling, or take an evening off to be with friends - whatever makes you happy.

And speaking of friends, make sure you keep in touch with them through email, text messages, social networking sites, and by meeting up face-to-face. The opportunity to share ideas and experiences, get and give advice, and have fun together will keep you (10) (MOTIVATE) _____ and less lonely. In short, human relationships are essential for your (11) (PSYCHOLOGY) _____ health, especially when you are stressed.

Of course, there will be times when you must be on your own so you can focus on your studies. In the busy life of a working student, it is easy to lose sight of the ultimate goal, which is to get an education. If you find it (12) (POSSIBLE) _____ to balance the demands of working and studying at the same time, you might be better off getting a bank loan after all.
