Read the following story.
For questions 11 to 15, say whether the statements are True or False.
On your Answer Sheet, mark T if the statement is True and F if the statement is False.

Tina had a very unlucky day. In the morning, she woke up late and she wasn't ready when the school bus came, so her mother drove her to school. Then, when she got to school, she had a history test. She was not prepared for the test so she did badly. During the break, she had a fight with Karen, her best friend. Karen told Tina that she didn't want to talk to her ever again.

When she got home, she was very sad. She told her mother about her unlucky day. But her mother smiled and said, "You didn't have any bad luck, Tina. You woke up late because you went to bed late. And it wasn't bad luck that you didn't do well in the test. You should study more. Your fight with Karen wasn't bad luck either. Think about it!" Tina thought about it silently. That night, she did her homework carefully and went to bed early, so the next morning, she felt happy. She went to school on time, and her teacher told her that there were no mistakes in her homework. Finally, she saw Karen and told her she was sorry about the fight. Karen said she was sorry, too.

Tina finally understood what her mother wanted to say: we can always change our luck.

Mark A, B or C on your Answer Sheet.

Hi Ben! How are you? I had a great weekend and I want to tell you about it.

First of all, my best friend and I went cycling in the park on Saturday morning. It was a beautiful day and there were many children in the playground. Some kids were playing football there and a man was selling ice cream. When we got hungry, we ate the sandwiches that my mum had packed for us. We also bought two ice cream cones. When I got home, I was very tired and I didn't do my homework. In the evening, I watched some TV with my little sister and at 9 o'clock, I went to bed.

On Sunday morning, my family and I went to the zoo. We saw many animals there, like tigers, elephants and giraffes. But I liked the lions best. They looked so strong! We had lunch at the zoo restaurant. There, I saw some of my classmates, too.

What did you do at the weekend? Write a letter to me and tell me all about it.

Talk later,

Tom
