The voyage of Odysseus

Scene 1

Setting: on Odysseus' ship near rocky cliffs

Characters: Odysseus; the sea captain; sailors; a monster with six heads

Odysseus: Listen, men. There are two horrifying sea monsters nearby. The first one has twelve legs, six necks and six heads, with three sets of teeth in each one!

Captain: That's awful! We have never seen such a terrifying creature!

Odysseus: If a ship sails too near, the monster will ...

Sailors: Help! The ship is rocking!

Odysseus: Row, row as fast as you can! The monster lives in the cave under those cliffs. He may be sleeping now but I will fight him if I have to.

Sailors: Row! Row!

Captain: We have just passed the cave. We are safe!

Sailor 1: No! Look at the water! We haven't escaped yet.

Sailor 2: The ship is spinning round and round. What is happening?

Odysseus: It is the other monster! It is a giant whirlpool. It will pull us under the sea!

Sailors: We must row!

Monster: Grrr!

Sailor 1: What is that?
Captain: It's a giant dog!
Odysseus: No, it is the monster with six heads!
Sailor 2: Look, it is rising out of the water!
Monster: Grrr!
Sailor 1: Help! It is attacking us.
Captain: It is grabbing the sailors. It is eating them! Row! Row!
Odysseus: Now a storm is coming! The waves are getting higher and higher.
Captain: The wind is tearing the sail.
Sailor 2: The mast has broken!
Captain: The ship is turning over! Help! Help!

Scene 2

Setting: on the beach of a small island

Characters: Odysseus; Calypso (a girl)

Odysseus: I was in the sea for ten days. Now I have reached an island. But is this a safe place? I don't know.
Calypso: Hello. My name is Calypso. What has happened to you?
Odysseus: I have just swum to this island. My name is Odysseus. I am travelling to my home.
Calypso: Where is your ship?
Odysseus: There was a terrible storm. My ship disappeared under the water and all the sailors drowned.
Calypso: That is dreadful. Come to my home. My parents will look after you.
Odysseus: Thank you. You are very kind. I am exhausted, it's true.
