Gingerbread Man Story

Fill in the Gingerbread Man story in the correct Simple Present or Simple Past tense:

Long ago there (live) _____ an old couple. One day the old woman (cook) _____ a gingerbread cookie in the shape of a man. As soon as the gingerbread man (be) _____ cooked, he (jump) _____ out of the tin and (run) _____ out of the open window, shouting "Don't (eat) _____ me!". He (run) _____ away as fast as he (can) _____.

The old couple (try) _____ to chase the gingerbread man but he (be) _____ too fast for them. Soon a hungry pig (see) _____ the gingerbread man and (say) _____, "Stop! I would like to eat you.". He too (join) _____ the chase. The gingerbread man (be) _____ too fast and said, "You can't catch me! I (be) _____ the Gingerbread Man.".

A little further, a hungry cow (see) _____ the gingerbread man and (say) _____, "Stop! I would like to eat you". She too (join) _____ the chase. "You can't catch me! I (be) _____ the Gingerbread Man", (say) _____ the gingerbread man.

Next, he (meet) _____ a horse. The horse too (join) _____ the chase. Finally, the gingerbread man (come) _____ to a river and (stop) _____ as the river (can) _____ make him soggy. A clever fox (come) _____ by and (want) _____ to eat him up but he (pretend) _____ to be nice and (offer) _____ help to the gingerbread man. He (ask) _____ the gingerbread man to climb on his head so that he could take him across the river. The gingerbread man (be) _____ so scared of the water that he (agree) _____.

As soon as they (reach) _____ the other side, the fox (toss) _____ up the gingerbread man in the air. He (open) _____ his mounth and (eat) _____ him up. That (be) _____ the end of the Gingerbread man.