

A GOOD CLASSMATE

Reading comprehension

1. Listen to and read the article.

WHAT IS A GOOD CLASSMATE?

It is important to have good citizens, but is it important to have good classmates?

Good classmates are respectful and kind. They help other students; they take care of the school and they help teachers too. We can say that a good classmate is a good person.

There are some actions that good classmates never do. They don't disrespect others; they don't brag about their grades and they never bully their classmates. Good classmates are always kind to others.

Good classmates are also good citizens. We need more of them.

What is a good classmate?

Miss Angela: "Good classmates are also good citizens. We need more of them".

"A good classmate is always kind to others".

Be a good classmate!

The infographic features a central title 'WHAT IS A GOOD CLASSMATE?' with a large red question mark. To the left, a blue box contains a cartoon illustration of a woman with glasses and a white t-shirt, with text defining a good classmate and a quote from Miss Angela. To the right, a white box contains text explaining the importance of good classmates and listing actions they should and shouldn't do. At the bottom, a cartoon girl with glasses and a backpack is shown holding a certificate. The background is decorated with colorful watercolor washes and floral patterns.

2. Answer the questions.

1. How are good classmates?

2. Choose the correct options. A good classmate:

- a. Help other students.
- b. Attend classes at time.
- c. Take care of the school.

3. Do we can say that a good classmate is a good person?

4. Choose the correct options. A good classmate never:

- a. Bully their classmates.
- b. Brag about their grades.
- c. Help teachers and classmates.

5. Write one characteristic of a good classmate that is not mentioned in the text.

