The following text is for test items 25 to 27.

On one fine summer's day in a field, a Grasshopper was hopping about in music mood. An ant passes by bearing along with great toil an ear of corn he was taking to the nest. The Grasshopper invited the ant to sit for a chat with him. But the ant refused.

"I'm storing up food for winter. Why don't you do the same?" Asked the ant.

"Pooh! Why bother about winter?" said Grasshopper. "We have got enough food at present"

But the Ant went on its way and continued its toil.

Finally, when winter came, the Grasshopper found itself dying of hunger, while it saw the ants distributing corn and grain from their storage. The Ants gave some of the food to the grasshopper.

25. What is the story about?

- A. A lazy ant.
- B. A winter activity.
- C. A grateful Grasshopper.
- D. A regretful Grasshopper.

26. What can we learn from the story?

- A. We have to prepare for the worst.
- B. We need to store food for winter.
- C. We must regret our mistake.
- D. We should enjoy our lives.

27. What should the Grasshopper do to avoid dying of hunger? (You may choose more than one answer)

- ☐ He must stop hopping around and start working.
- ☐ He has to ask for food from the ants every day
- ☐ He can still enjoy the day relaxing and do nothing.
- ☐ He should store the food for his supply on winter.
