INVERTEBRATES

1. Match the picture with the right invertebrate group.

annelids
mollucs equinoderms
arthropods
jellyfish

2. Complete the sentences with the words in the box.

skin	backbone
exoeskeleton	muscular
soft	jellyfish
segments	shell
thorax	umbrella

1. Arthropods have three parts: head, _____and abdomen. They also have jointed legs and a protective_____.
2. Echinoderms are protected by hard _____.
3. _____have a _____body called the_____. They also have long tentacles.
4. Annelids have a long, soft body divided into_____.
5. Molluscs have a soft, _____body. It is often protected by a hard_____.
6. Invertebrates haven't got a _____.

3. Are these sentences true or false?

1. Invertebrates have a backbone
2. Arthropods have a soft body called the umbrella
3. Mollucs live on land and in water.
4. Annelids have a long body, divided into segments
5. Jellyfish have head, thorax and abdomen.
6. Echinoderms are protected by a hard skin.