

Revision.

---

Fill in the gaps.

- 1.They're _____. A good friend is someone who will keep the personal information you shared with them _____ and not share it with anyone or _____ about it.
2. Good friends offer us various kinds of support, such as emotional support when we're feeling _____ and information support when we need to know how to _____ problems.
3. Good friends are not _____.
You're comfortable around your good friends because you can be _____ around them. You're not afraid to reveal your weaknesses.
- 4.A good friend doesn't have to be physically _____ to be emotionally present. Physical closeness is a lot, but especially nowadays, there are ways of staying together even when you are living in different countries.
- 5.In any type of relationship, having a good balance of give-and-_____ is important. One-sided relationships don't _____. A good friend is not a selfish receiver but a generous giver as well.
- 6.Sometimes, you may feel like your good friends know you better than you know _____. They have your best interest in _____ and offer caring, honest feedback, even when it might hurt.
7. A good friend is a person who will help do something for you without _____ anything in return.
8. A good friend will stand ___ you during good times and _____ times. If you go through a painful event such as a divorce, they'll stand by you. They will also _____ your success and be proud of you.