

MODAL VERBS WITH “IF” CLAUSE

Put the correct modal verbs to the gaps must should will might can

can

1. If you cut your finger, it bleed.
2. If you finish your dinner, you watch TV.
3. She learn to become a good cook if she tries hard.
4. If he likes eating spicy food, he add chilli.
5. If you don't want to get burnt, you follow these safety instructions.
6. If you feel unwell, you not eat fast food.

Choose the best options to complete the sentences.

1. She can / must / should be good at making cakes if she takes a training course in this centre.
2. If she wants to follow the traditional recipe, she can't / mustn't / may not put curries in that dish.
3. He shouldn't / mustn't / may not stay up late tonight if he wants to get up early tomorrow morning.
4. Lan might / can't / should be very excited if her father lets her take a holiday in Japan.
5. Henry shouldn't / might / can make his dish better if he uses some rice flour.

Write the correct form of each verb in brackets.

1. All the electric equipment must _____ (be) turned off before you go out if you want to reduce your electricity bill next month.
2. If Tom _____ (help) his mom clean their house this morning, he can go out this afternoon.
3. If you tell Linh about that, she might _____ (be) very surprised.
4. If Hanh _____ (not want) to gain weight, she shouldn't eat too much fast food.
5. You should _____ (use) fresh meat and vegetables if you want to make a good dish.

Match the halves of the sentences below

1. Nam might take some bottles of water in the fridge _____
2. We can swim _____
3. If Hoa joins Ms. Amy's cooking class, _____
4. If you need information about the cooking course, _____
5. Lily must follow this road _____

she can improve her cooking skills a lot.

if he is thirsty.

if she wants to get to that village earlier.

you may contact to Ms. Lien.

if the sea isn't too rough this afternoon.