

4e – A traveller's tale!

Prepared by Mrs. Muna Ali

Look at the story below. Read it and put it in the correct order.

I was positive that I'd miss my plane, so I turned the radio and tried to get used to the idea. Soon there was a loud knock at the window. To my surprise it was a young man in leather clothes, "Need a ride?" he said. My plane was leaving in an hour so I didn't think twice. I grabbed my bags, climbed carefully onto the motorcycle and shouted urgently, "To the airport please!"

It was my first time on a motorcycle so I was terrified. The young man drove so fast that I kept my eyes tightly shut all the way. Suddenly, the motorcycle came to a halt. "We're here!" he said. I looked at my watch and saw I was just in time for my flight. The young man wished me a nice trip, then quickly sped away.

While I was driving to the airport, the storm got worse. Suddenly, a huge flash of lightning struck a tree. It came crashing down just meters in front of my car. The fallen tree completely blocked the road, so I was stuck. I tried to call the emergency services on my mobile, but the line was dead.

It was rather windy when I set off for the airport last Monday morning. The sky was full of dark clouds and soon it started raining heavily. What a great way to start a holiday!

As soon as my plane took off. I breathed a huge sigh of relief. I could now relax and enjoy my holiday.
