

More! 4 – Unit 4 (Jobs)

Put the words that are missing

1. When you don't have a job, you are _____
2. Working as a _____ without liking animals is impossible.
3. One advantage of living in the EU is that you can pay with the same _____ in most countries. It is called the "Euro".
4. I would never go into that abandoned house. It's _____! I am scared of ghosts.
5. The police detective _____ the crime and thanks to lots of _____, he was able to find the killer.
6. When you have lots of money and you die, you can set up a will and someone will _____ everything.
7. I imagine being an _____ must be a bit boring if you don't like working with numbers and computers.
8. _____ and _____ work at a hospital and take care of sick patients.
9. _____ and _____ employees often don't earn the same money. There is often a wage gap.
10. "What are the _____ and _____ of this job?"
"Money on the positive side and everything else on the other." "So _____ your job and look for something else."

Translate the words:

skills
memorise earn be responsible for Zufriedenheit

	Ratschlag
	von etwas begeistert sein
	Gehalt

Jobs and Occupations – Match the jobs with their definitions! Write the numbers next to the definitions.

1. butcher	person who puts out fires
2. plumber	person who is trained to give medical care to animals
3. sailor	someone who gives people advice on where to spend their holidays
4. pharmacist	official who is in control of a court and decides how criminals should be punished
5. travel agent	person who cares for books and lends them to people
6. firefighter	tries to find out why people behave in a certain way
7. scientist	someone who prepares medicine in a house or hospital
8. screenwriter	someone who writes scripts for films and plays
9. librarian	person who makes things out of wood and repairs them
10. psychologist	a person who prepares meat and sells it
11. carpenter	person who designs and creates buildings, bridges etc..
12. judge	someone whose job it is to welcome people at a hotel
13. vet	person who works on a ship
14. lawyer	person who works in a laboratory and does experiments
15. receptionist	repairs broken pipes, heating and the water system in your house
16. engineer	person whose job it is to advise people about legal problems and defend them in court
17. nurse	person who sells medicine to people