

Present and past Continuous - ACTIVE

We use the active when the subject of the sentence does the action:

They are building the house now. (Present cont.)

Jenny was reading the paper. (Past cont. tense)

Present and past Continuous - PASSIVE

We use the passive when the person who does something is not known or not important.

✚ The house is being built.

✚ The paper was being read.

Change the following sentences to passive.

- 1 The mechanics are repairing Carlos' car. His car is being repaired by the mechanics.
- 2 Three men are not following Tom.
- 3 Is The thief following Mary?
- 4 We are making progress.
- 5 Tom is using the computer.
- 6 Mary is watering the plants.
- 7 Tom and Mary are not helping the children.
- 8 Are Tom and Mary helping John?
- 9 Mary is treating Tom like a child.
- 10 The policeman is arresting Tom.
- 11 Tom and Mary are not picking flowers.
- 12 Are Most of them building a new bridge?

Complete the sentences with the present continuous passive of the verbs in brackets.

- 1 The teachers' room and the gym are being renovated (RENOVATE).
- 2 The plants are being watered (WATER).
- 3 Progress is being made (MAKE).
- 4 A new museum is being built (BUILD) in the center of the city.
- 5 My car is being repaired (REPAIR).
- 6 My office is being painted (PAINT) today.
- 7 Tom and Mary are being questioned (QUESTION) by the police.
- 8 The child is being taken (TAKE) good care of by the doctor.
- 9 Tom is being charged (CHARGE) with murder.
- 10 A reward is being offered (OFFER).

Change the following sentences to passive.

- 1 They were not giving Tom money.
- 2 The detective was collecting information.
- 3 Were The policemen patrolling the street?
- 4 Tom and Mary were cleaning the rooms.
- 5 Was She eating the sandwich?
- 6 Tom and Mary were speaking French.
- 7 A car was blocking the gateway.
- 8 My father was painting the house.
- 9 Tom and Mary were not looking at John.
- 10 My mother was helping my little brother.

Complete the sentences with the past continuous passive of the verbs in brackets.

- 20 His grain was being eaten (EAT) by the field mice.
- 21 Mary was being ignored (IGNORE) by Tom.
- 22 I was being kept (KEEP) from me by Tom.
- 23 The bus was being driven (DRIVE) by Tom when I called him.
- 24 Tom said I was being looked for (LOOK FOR) by the FBI.
- 26 A flag was being waved (WAVE) by Tom.
- 27 I was being taught (TEACH) by Tom.
- 28 A speech was being given (GIVE) by him while everybody was getting bored.
- 29 I was being pushed (PUSH) by Tom.
- 30 Two suitcases were being carried (CARRY) by Greg.