

What is a team?

A team is a group of people who work together to do something. To be a good team, team members need special qualities and values.

- Think about the values you discussed as a class.
- Write 10 values below that you think are important for making a good team.

1

2

3

10

4

9

5

8

7

6

