Welcome back! Last month we were on tour in the USA. We played in New York, San Francisco and Los Angeles. It was lots of fun!

Last weekend we were back in the UK for more great concerts. We played in Bristol and Manchester. Our fantastic fans were there to cheer us on!

Last week was quiet. There weren't any concerts and we had time to visit our families and friends. It's always good to go home. I love seeing my little dog, Josie!

And yesterday Jan, our lead singer, was at her favourite place with Sam, our backing singer – the shopping centre! And do you know where Ron and I were? We were at the amusement park. It was really cool!

Then, last night we were all back on stage in our hometown of Liverpool.

See you soon!
