The second picture is of a town. I can see the weather is not very nice, it's cloudy. There is a theatre between the post office and the school. Behind the school is a beautiful brigde. I can also see a mom and her son are going out of the post office. They look very happy. A man is walking with his small dog and a girl is going to run out of the chair. There is a thirsty boy sitting on a chair next to Grey's Hotel. Everyone looks very busy in this picture.
