This week's problem

We're really worried about our son at present. He's fifteen and he's just started going round with a gang of older boys who are involved in petty crime. (0) We don't take him to school in the morning, and we know that he doesn't actually go to school a lot of the time – he meets these boys. They go to the cinema and funfairs, and our son uses (1) the money we give him for lunch to go with them. (2) We haven't talked to our son about this yet, because we're sure (3) he'd just lie to us – he accuses us of treating him like a child and watching him all the time. (4) We really don't know whether to talk to the police about him – it seems so drastic. There's a parents' evening at school next week, so (5) perhaps we should speak to his teachers first. We don't know (6) if there's any way they can help us.

- 0 If you took him to school..... in the morning, you could make sure he goes inside.
- 1 He wouldn't be able to spend money on funfairs if you
- 2 I would talk to your son if I
- 3 He probably lie to you if you treated him like an adult.
- 4 If I were you I unless you know he has committed a crime.
Your son is very young and you don't want the police involved at this stage.
- 5 It would be a good idea if you They might be worried, too.
- 6 The teachers know your son. If you speak to them, they
