

Look at the phrases below. Choose the correct word.

1. I have no / none friends at school.
2. It's amazing that none / all of my friends like music, but any / none of them listen to classical music.
3. No / None of my friends wear a tie.
4. I always know what's best for me, I don't ask no / any of my friends.
5. Any / None student in class can call me a friend.
6. I didn't have any / all close friends in elementary school.
7. All / No of my friends have been to my house.
8. I have never fallen out with any / no of my friends.
9. All / Any my friends can make jewellery.

Which pronouns are the following statements about?

We use it before nouns.

I have time for jogging.

It means not one or not any. It replaces nouns.

Mary has two friends, Rose has

We use it when there is a negative word in the sentence.

I don't need friends.

We use them with of before the / this / that / my / his / etc.

of his photos were creative.

She doesn't get on with of us.

Read what Rita says about her friends. Fill in the gaps with all, any, no, none.

I have (1) real friends at school. We get on really well in class, but (2) of my classmates share my interests. (3) my friends are my neighbours, but I have (4) time to see them. Actually, I don't have (5) free time. I have dance classes every day after school, reading club and lots of homework. Moreover, my friends are busy (6) the time, too. (7) one is there when I need them. (8) of my friends live far, but we spend more time chatting on the Net than hanging out together. Do you have (9) ideas how to change it? I have (10) .

Match the halves to make questions.

1. Are most of your friends
2. How often do you
3. What do you
4. Do you have enough free
5. How much time do you spend
6. What advice can