1 _____

Jake, 14

I never have a lie-in at the weekend. Why? Because I do a newspaper round, so I always get up early. I get up, I go to the local newsagent's, and then I deliver newspapers to people's houses. I always get up at half past six on Saturdays and Sundays. First I have a quick shower, and then I have breakfast. Poor Mum! She always gets up, too, and has breakfast with me. At the newsagent's there are three paper boys and two paper girls. We start work at seven o'clock. We take the newspapers to people's houses. We usually cycle, but we sometimes walk. I usually finish work at half past eight. After that, I go home and have a second breakfast!

2 _____

Lisa, 15

I work at the local supermarket, so I get up early on Saturday mornings. I'm a 'shelf-stacker'. I put the food on the shelves. I always get up at half past seven. First, I have a wash and I get dressed. Then I have breakfast. I leave home at quarter past eight. I start work at half past eight, and I finish at half past three. My friend Sally works at the supermarket, too. We have lunch at midday. We have a break for an hour, so we usually go shopping. The work isn't very interesting, but the extra money is good!

3 _____

Anne-Marie, 14

My aunt and uncle sometimes go out on Fridays or Saturdays. I go to their house and I babysit for my cousin. I really like my cousin! His name's Oscar and he's four. I usually go at five o'clock and eat a pizza with Oscar. My aunt and uncle go out at about half past six. Oscar and I play games, or we watch TV, and he goes to bed at seven o'clock. I usually watch DVDs, but sometimes I do my homework first. My aunt and uncle usually come home at ten o'clock. I always spend the money on music. I download songs from the Internet.
