Listening

B1+ THE TEENS

Complete the Exam Tasks.

Exam Task

1 You will hear people talking in five different situations. For questions 1–5, choose the best answer (a, b or c).

1 You hear a man and woman talking. How does the man sound?
a stubborn b modest c envious

2 You hear a woman talking. What does she want to be?
a a reporter b a columnist c a publisher

3 You hear a man and woman talking. What is the man worried about?
a famine b drought c pollution

4 You hear a woman talking. What is she not going to do?
a exercise b take medicine c go on a diet

5 You hear a man talking. How does he feel about his work as a volunteer?
a satisfied b depressed c anxious

Listen again.

Exam Task

2 You will hear an interview with a famous researcher. For questions 1–6, complete the sentences with a word or short phrase.

1 Dr McCue is a supporter of clean _____.
2 There are approximately _____ nuclear generating plants worldwide.
3 One disadvantage of wind power is that it creates a _____.
4 Denmark uses wind power to satisfy about _____ of its energy needs.
5 A solar power system operates silently as there are _____.
6 The high costs of a solar power system relate to the materials and the _____ Listen again.

Exam Task

3 You will hear four short extracts in which people are talking about natural disasters. For questions 1–4, choose from the list (A–G) the way each person feels about the topic. Use the letters only once. There are three extra letters which you do not need to use.

1 Speaker 1 ☐
2 Speaker 2 ☐
3 Speaker 3 ☐
4 Speaker 4 ☐

A has suffered in a natural disaster
B thinks media coverage of natural disasters is helpful
C thinks the news media pay too much attention to natural disasters
D sees some of the benefits of natural disasters
E is particularly interested in one kind of natural disaster
F thinks natural disasters are boring after he read about them
G thinks there is nothing interesting about watching a volcano erupt

Listen again.

Exam Task

4 You will hear a radio interview with a police sergeant, who's talking about the steps involved in investigating a crime scene. For questions 1–5, choose the best answer (a, b or c).

1 What does Sergeant Hoyt say about detective work?
a He is sometimes amazed by the discoveries made.
b It isn't as easy as it looks on TV.
c Finding evidence is usually a quick process.

2 What is the first thing to be done at a crime scene?
a photograph the scene
b take notes about the scene
c secure the scene

3 What is most important when examining the scene?
a not to miss any evidence b to cover most of the crime scene
c to search the area in a circular pattern

4 What is recorded during the search?
a what evidence is damaged
b how the evidence will be analysed c where the evidence was found

5 During the collection of evidence,
a some evidence remains at the scene.
b investigators know immediately what will be useful.
c only small items have to be labelled.

Copyright © National Geographic Learning.
Permission granted to photocopy for classroom use.

LIVEWORKSHEETS