

Giving Advice

take some medicines

take a rest

see the doctor

take a painkiller

drink warm water

watch TV too much

drink cool water

eat sweets

stay in bed

brush your teeth

check temperature

use some eye drops

take some syrup

go outside

Subject + should + Verb1

Subject + shouldn't + Verb1

1.  I have a headache.
You should You shouldn't
2.  She has a sore throat.
She should
She shouldn't
3.  He has a toothache.
He should
He shouldn't
4.  She has a sore eye.
She should
She shouldn't
5.  He has a fever.
He should
He shouldn't
6.  She has a cough.
She should
She shouldn't

Situation : Vicky is worried that his cough has gotten deeper. So he goes to a doctor.

Doctor: Hi, How are you feeling?

Vicky: Horrible. I have a cough so I can't sleep at all.

Doctor: Do you have any symptoms?

Vicky: No.

Doctor: OK. Let me check to your chest.

Vicky: What should I do?

Doctor: I'll give you some medicines. You should take some syrup and shouldn't drink cool water.

Vicky: OK. Thank you.

Make your conversation.

Doctor:

You :

Doctor:

You:

Doctor:

You:

Doctor:

.....

You: