Language Arts Unit 2 week 6 homework

1. Drag the words with the correct definition.

a new thing that someone has created an arrangement where a group of people take turns driving each other to a set location the introduction of harmful materials into the environment
All the different types of plants, animals and organisms on a planet or location a kind of mathematics that deals with shapes and figures. difficult or impossible to understand, explain, or identify.
the reduction of something to small pieces or powder by crushing it control and make use of (natural resources), especially to produce energy.

Pollution	Biodiversity	Geometry	Carpool
Mysterious	Harnessed	Grinding	Inventions

2. Fill in the blanks with correct word

a. I _____ cake for breakfast. (ate/eight)
b. The wind _____ my hair. (blue/blew)
c. I can see _____ Star in the sky. (won/one)
d. They were lying on the beach by the _____. (sea/see)
e. The Old man _____ a horse to work. (rode/road)
f. Today I stood at the pier and watched the Boats _____ away. (sale/sail)

3.Re-write the Double negatives sentences

a. I don't want no pizza for dinner

b. She didn't see nobody at the park.

c. We didn't do no dances at the wedding

4.Write the antonym of the following words

a. Empty
b. Cold
c. Happy
d. Beautiful

LIVEWORKSHEETS