VERB TENSE REVIEW – Semester 1

I. Match the tenses with their uses. One tense can be used for different purposes.

1	Present Simple	a.	To describe an action that began in the past and continues to the present
2	Present Continuous	b.	To describe general statement of facts
3	Present Perfect	c.	To describe an activity in progress at the moment of speaking
4	Past Simple	d.	To describe an activity that was completed before another action or another time in the past
5	Past Continuous	e.	To describe a habitual activity
6	Be Going To	f.	To describe an activity that was repeated before now. The exact time of each repetition is not important
7	Future Simple	g.	To describe a planned event or a definite action
8	Used to + V	h.	To describe an activity that began and ended in the past 9	Past Perfect	i.	To express willingness to do something
		j.	To describe a past habit
		k.	To describe one act in progress when another act occurs
		l.	To describe an activity in progress at a certain time in the past
		m.	To express a future plan or intention
		n.	To describe an action that finished a short time before the time of speaking
