Selection Review Enabling or Disabling?

EQ How Much Should People Help Each Other?

Read about helpful and harmful relationships.

A. In "Enabling or Disabling?" you read about how people who are trying to help one another can have harmful relationships. Complete the chart with the enablers' behavior and why it is harmful.

| Enablers and Their Relationship | What the Enabler Does | Why the Behavior is Harmful |
|---|---|---|
| Jerry and his mom | | |
| Jenny and her dad | | |
| Janey and Frank | | |

B. Use the information in the chart to answer the questions.

1. How were the people discussed in this selection enablers?

2. Why does an enabler make it their responsibility to fix someone else's problem? Use responsibility in your response.

3. Choose one of the relationships in the chart. How could the individuals turn a harmful relationship into a helpful one?
