

Complete the sentences with can, can't, could or couldn't.

1. When Lillian was a kid, she could count very well. Today, she is the best in her math class.
2. Twan can't play the piano, but he plays the drums very well.
3. When I was in high school, I used to play volleyball because I was uncoordinated. I wasn't good at any sport!
4. Jordana used to be a writer because she has a lot of writing experience. Jordana works at a bookstore because she loves reading. She has a blog and she writes about science fiction!
5. Look over there! If you stand at the corner of this balcony, you can see the CN Tower from here!
6. When I was in my twenties, I couldn't play any sport! These days it is hard for me to run or jump.
7. I haven't play tennis for two weeks because I hurt my elbow. When I get better, I will play every day.
8. When Maury was a child, he couldn't reach the cookie jar. He was too short. Today, he is the tallest in his family.

C. Write three sentences about abilities you have now. Then, write two sentences about abilities you had in the past.

1.

