

What's the aim of school participatory budget?

Choose the correct option

The aim of school participatory budget is to raise active, creative, enterprising and responsible young 1. _____, who care for their area, who are 2. _____ to social problems, who respect the rights of 3. _____ people.

The projects implemented at school increase civic and social 4. _____ of young people and increase the involvement of young people in public issues at school.

Students learn how civil society functions in practice, the process is adapted to the needs and requirements of young people. Thanks to the possibility of implementing the project selected by the school 5 _____, School Participatory Budget has almost all the 6. _____ of a self-government participatory budget.

The idea for the project may include a renovation of a place, a purchase of equipment or devices relevant 7. _____ the school community or organizing an interesting event at school. It all depends on the creativity of the students and their promotional skills.

Students 8. _____ their projects and then choose the one they think is the best. The project that receives 9. _____ votes wins and gets selected for implementation. School Participatory Budget aims to show students that it's worth 10. _____ involved.

- | | | | |
|-----------------|-----------------|---------------|----------------|
| 1 A citizens | B citizans | C citisens | D sitizens |
| 2 A sensible | B sensitive | C selfish | D insensitive |
| 3 A the other | B another | C other | D others |
| 4 A participate | B participation | C participant | D participants |
| 5 A comunity | B communal | C community | D company |
| 6 A feathers | B future | C feature | D features |
| 7 A for | B with | C from | D to |
| 8 A reject | B submit | C substract | D admit |
| 9 A the most | B the least | C most | D no |
| 10 A to be | B be | C being | D to being |