

Vertebrates, Invertebrates and Cells

1. Choose the correct word to complete the sentences about living things.

- a. _____ are animals without a spine.
- b. _____ are animals that eat plants.
- c. _____ are animals that eat plants and animals.
- d. _____ are more numerous than _____.
- e. Animals that live on land are _____.

2. Read about vertebrates. Write the missing words.

Mammals are _____. The young are born from their mother's womb. Fertilization takes place _____ the female. They breathe through their _____. Their body temperature is constant.

Birds are _____. Female birds lay eggs. Fertilization takes place inside the female. They _____ through their lungs. Their body temperature is constant.

Fish are oviparous. Fertilization takes place _____ the body. Their bodies have _____. They breathe through their _____. Reptiles are oviparous. They breathe through their lungs. Their bodies have scales. Their body _____ varies in different environments.

3. Label the process.

1 Living things get the nutrients they need to live and grow from food.

reproduction

sensitivity

2 Living things have children.

nutrition

3 Living things react to different situations in their environment.

Label the parts of the cell. Use the words below.

nucleus

cytoplasm

organelles

membrane

