

Think!

A Write yes if the group of words is a sentence.
Write no if the group of words is not a sentence.

1. yes Nocturnal creatures sleep much of the day.
2. no Are active at night.
3. Many animals are awake at night.
4. The word nocturnal means "belonging to the night."
5. Crickets, opossums, and owls.
6. God created nocturnal creatures to see, hear, or smell in the dark.
7. The special eyes of a lemur.

Remember!

A (1) Identify each sentence by writing Dec., Int., Exc., or Imp. in the blank. (2) Use proofreader's marks to show which letters should be capitalized and to add punctuation to the end of each sentence.

≡ capitalize

△ insert

1. _____ do you know much about owls
2. _____ there are over two hundred different kinds of owls in the world
3. _____ wow, that is a lot of owls
4. _____ owls have to turn their heads to see
5. _____ special feathers make the owl's flight silent
6. _____ owls have very good hearing
7. _____ why do they need to hear so well
8. _____ they hunt at night and cannot always see their prey
9. _____ listen for an owl when you go outside at night
10. _____ owls hoot, screech, and even hiss sometimes

Correct each run-on sentence by rewriting it correctly as two sentences.

1. A luna moth caterpillar eats tree leaves it is always hungry.

2. The caterpillar eats until it makes a cocoon it stays in the cocoon for three weeks.

3. The luna moth has pretty wings they are long and green.

Mark the next to the correct kind of sentence.

1. What do you know about Fowler's toads?

declarative interrogative imperative exclamatory

2. The mother toad may lay up to 20,000 eggs!

declarative interrogative imperative exclamatory

3. In about two months, the tadpoles become little toads.

declarative interrogative imperative exclamatory

4. Don't hurt these garden friends.

declarative interrogative imperative exclamatory