Last summer, Camellia was in the United States. The trip by plane was long and tiring and the plane ticket was quite expensive. After leaving the airport, she was in the taxi to come to her friend's apartment to leave the luggage and rest a bit. The apartment was small and warm with a nice view of the central park. In the evening, they went to the world-famous Times Square. There were hundreds of people, huge neon lights and stores. There weren't any cars because it was a holiday and the square was closed to traffic. They were also in one of the Broadway theatres to see a great play.
