Name :_____ Class : _____

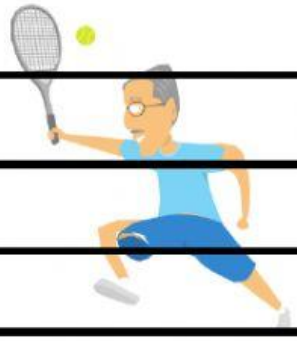

UNIT 8. GRAMMAR. Conjunctions.

Conjunctions	Usage	Example
for	to give reasons (like because)	I stayed at home, for I was sick.
and	to join words or ideas together	He can play tennis, and he can teach you but, yet	to join contrast words or ideas	The test was long, but I COULD DO IT WELL or	to talk about choices	You can't swim, or you can die
NOR	to express similar negative meaning	She isN'T overweight, nor is she slim
so	to show result	I woke up late, so I missed the bus.

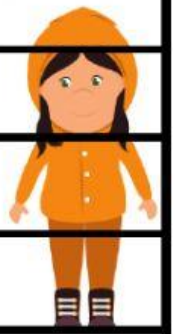

Let's Practise.

Fill in the blanks with the correct conjunctions. (for, and, but, or, yet, so)

Example: We love to listen to Anna, for she sings sweetly.

1	He is not your boss, _____ is he your father.
2	She wants to go to bed early, _____ she is tired.
3	My grandfather is old, _____ he is active in sport.
4	I can eat the pizza right now, _____ I can save it for later.
5	Kamini needed some new clothing, _____ she went shopping.
6	He never drives to work, _____ does he take taxi.
7	She put on a sweater, _____ it was cold outside.
8	Susan thinks she should just stay at home, _____ she can do homework
9	Najmee did not understand the homework, _____ he asked me for a help.
10	He wanted to watch television, _____ there was a blackout.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

11	I studied a lot last week, _____there would be an important exam.
12	It's raining, _____there are a lot of people on the beach.
13	I don't like cooking, _____do I like washing the dishes.
14	Jack wants to be a doctor, _____he wants to work in a big hospital.
15	It's my birthday today, _____I feel very happy.
16	You should explain again, _____he won't understand.
17	She doesn't eat less fast food, _____does she do exercise.
18	The bus was late, _____there was heavy traffic.
19	My aunt helped me with homework, _____she took me to the park.
20	She had to stay in bed, _____she had a fever.

LIVEWORKSHEETS