France is a popular destination to practice skiing. Families visit this nation's northern region every year for a fun holiday. Most resorts offer ski lessons for children, beginners, or advanced skiers. The best time to do outdoor activities like ice climbing, dog sledding, and winter canyoning is when it is cold and sunny. Follow the safety rules, follow the trail signs, wear a helmet, and don't ski alone. Sometimes, there are snow storms, and people stay indoors. For these occasions, resorts offer entertainment such as bowling, indoor tennis, swimming, and gyms.

1. Families visit the _____ of France to ski every year.

- a) south
- b) north
- c) west

2. Inexperienced skiers can _____.

- c) wear sunglasses

- C. Read the paragraph. Then, number the phrases in the order they happened. (5 points)

Today, our 4th grade class took a field trip to the Central Museum. First, we gathered at the school's entrance and boarded the school bus. When we arrived, our teacher gave us our tickets to enter the museum, where our tour guide, Miss Ivory, waited. We began the tour on the west side, where we heard all about Lafayette's early years in military school. Later, we moved to the east side, where we saw letters and objects that Lafayette possessed during his time in America. Finally, the tour ended at the central showroom, where Miss Ivory talked about Gilbert's role in the French Revolution. We went back to school and wrote a paper about it. It was an interesting day!

1. Boarded the bus _____
2. Visited the central showroom _____
3. Got the tickets and entered to meet the tour guide _____
4. Visited the east side and learned about Lafayette's time in America _____
5. Learned about Lafayette's life in military school _____
