This week article is about idiomatic expression

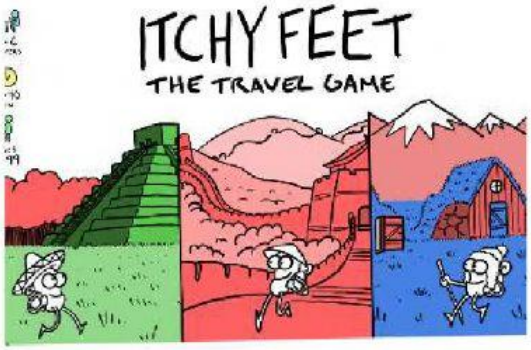

Have you ever listened the ones on the presentation?

get / have cold feet (idiom)

to suddenly become nervous about doing something that you had planned to do

It's common for people to have cold feet before they get married.

Read a magazine article about different idiomatic expression with foot and feet.

A. It's difficult for me to put my foot down when a coworker is not doing his or her part of the job

B. I get itchy feet by the end of the year, so I take a two weeks on a place that I like.

C. I know someone who got a job after getting a foot in the door but he knew the person in advance

D. I know someone who waits on hand and foot to get all the things he needs, he doesn't help at all

E. I would like to put my feet up because I've worked very hard and I need some time off

F. The last time I started off on the wrong foot my car broke down and I didn't make it to an important date.

G. That last time I got cold feet because I didn't find my wallet after paying at the cinema and all my cards where there

H. I put my foot in my mouth two days ago after congratulating my boss for her pregnancy when she wasn't.

I. Standing on your own two feet is difficult because you have to provide yourself with all the things you need every day.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Match the ideas to the correct word

A		(be completely independent)
B		(become frighten)
C		(Succeed with a first step)
D		(provides everything to someone)
E		(show my authority to stop something)
F		(start something badly)
G		(relax)
H		(say something thatmakes you feel embarrassed)
I		(start to want to travel)

Magazine SURVEY game

Discuss with your classmates and complete the expression on the board with your own ideas

A. The last time I put my foot down was because...

B. The last time I got itchy feet I went to...

C. Someone who waits on hand and foot for others is...

D. During the day I put my feet up ...

E. The last time I started off on the wrong foot ...

F. Something that makes me get cold feet is...

G. I put my foot in my mouth when I told...

H. In my opinion the most challenging thing about standing on your own two feet is...

LIVEWORKSHEETS