

Test 1 dl 10/12:

1. The Boeing MD-83 ploughed into a printing works and ..... buildings before bursting into flames.

- A. Resident
- B. Residence
- C. Residential
- D. Residentially

2. That picture was denounced by its owner as a fake but discussions on its ..... are ongoing.

- a. authentic
- b. authentically
- c. authenticate
- d. authenticity

3. People sometimes like the idea that experts are ..... and make mistakes.

- a. fallibly
- b. fallible
- c. fallibility
- d. fall

4. I expect the Greek public will be ..... frightened by the prospect of expulsion from the EU.

- a. sufficient
- b. sufficiently
- c. sufficiency
- d. sufficiencies

5. In an effort to combat this, a movement ..... the fair trade of coffee began in 1988 in the Netherlands.

- a. institution
- b. institutional
- c. institutionalize
- d. to institutionalize

6.The problem is that in every country seems to have its own unofficial “rules”. In Australia, for example tipping isn’t common at all, and they aren’t really expected in restaurant...or anywhere else as a matter of fact. It’s the ..... in Iceland and China. And in Japan, it can actually be considered rude to tip in a restaurant.

- a. similar
- b. like
- c. same
- d.alike

7.In fact, if you leave money a waiter might chase you to give back. In most of Europe, tipping a waiter is fairly common. However, amounts vary from country to country. In England, for example, most people tip around 10% of the bill. But in Spain people generally only leave small change. However, if there’s one country where you really should tip, it’s the United States. In stark ..... to Japan, a waiter will probable chase you down the street if you don’t leave a tip! Not only that, but Americans usually tip up to hefty 20% in restaurants. So, if you’re saving up for a big dinner in the US, make sure you take that into account.

- a. contrast
- b. contrary
- c. contract
- d. contradict

8. Americans also tip for drinks. In fact, there are some bars in New York where staff earn such big ..... from tips that they receive no wages. Some people even pay to work there.

- a. currency
- b. money
- c. budget
- d. fund

9. he has been very interested in doing reseach on .... since he was at highschool

- a. biology

- b. biological
- c. biologist
- d. biologically

10. are you sure that boys are more.... than girls?

- a. act
- b. action
- c. active
- d. acting