

Guess the Literary Term

Drag the pictures to their corresponding literary terms.

Fred left the house at eleven o'clock and drove into town. He was meeting his father for lunch at Brown's. Officially, they were just 'catching up', but they both knew Fred needed money again. And not such a small amount this time, either.

Simile

Metaphor

Foreshadowing

Alliteration

Imagery

Assonance

Hyperbole

Personification

Onomatopoeia