

CAN - CAN'T

My dog can run very fast, but it can't swim.

MUST = HAVE TO (HAS TO)

You must hit the ball and run to play baseball. = You have to hit the ball and run to play baseball.

MUSTN'T

You mustn't kick other players when you play basketball.

DON'T/DOESN'T HAVE TO

You don't have to wear white clothes to play tennis.

He doesn't have to wear white clothes to play tennis.

1. Choose the option that makes the most sense.
 - a) Playing basketball, you must / mustn't / don't have to kick the ball.
 - b) Playing basketball, you must / mustn't / can't respect other players.
 - c) Playing tennis, you must / have to / don't have to take the racket with the right hand.
 - d) Playing tennis, you have to / don't have to / mustn't run with the ball in your hand.
 - e) Playing badminton, you must / don't have to / mustn't wear black clothes.
 - f) Playing volleyball, you can / can't / have to wear a red t-shirt.
 - g) You can / can't / don't have to / mustn't play badminton on your own.

2) Look at the rules of the gym and write sentences that make sense.

a) In the gym you can follow their regular routine.

b) In the gym you wear gym clothes.

c) In the gym, you wear jewelry.

d) Rule number 3 says that you

e) when you hear the whistle, you

3) Invent a new sport. Write sentences about it with its rules.

Name of the sport:

Possibilities (2): Players

Not necessary! (2)

Rules (2 obligations, 2 prohibitions)