Mr and Mrs Williams always spend their summer holidays in England in a small house at the seaside. One year, however, Mr Williams made a lot of money in his business, so they decided to go to Rome and stay at a really good hotel while they went around and saw the sights of the famous city.

They flew to Rome, and arrived at their hotel late one evening. They thought that they had to go to bed feeling hungry, because Italians do not serve meals after seven o'clock in the evening so they were surprised when the clerk who received them in the hall of the hotel asked them what they wanted for dinner that night. The clerk said they always served meals until half past nine.

The following day they visited the Coliseum. While they were there, they suddenly saw a famous Italian actress, who was Mr Williams' favourite actress. He asked her for an autograph and fortunately she gave it to him so he was extremely happy. However, his wife was very jealous.

1. The text is about a holiday in England.
2. Mr and Mrs Williams always spend their holidays in the mountains.
3. They went to Rome by train.
