An organic box scheme

What is an organic box scheme?

We deliver boxes of vegetables from our organic farm to homes up to 100 kilometres away. Most families get one box per week. They choose either a small, medium or large box.

What is an organic farm?

We don't use any chemicals on the farm.

Can you choose which vegetables are in your box?

No, the vegetables are different at different times of year. For example, in winter there are lots of potatoes, carrots and onions. In summer, there are things like tomatoes, beans and peas.

Are all the vegetables from your farm?

90% of the vegetables are from our farm. We do use some vegetables from other countries at certain times of year. For example, most of the winter vegetables finish by April and the summer vegetables aren't ready until June. So then we also use some vegetables from France and Spain to keep the boxes full.
