Do you like to play baseball, basketball, or soccer? These are all team sports. Team sports are very fun and very safe.

There are other types of sports that people do, too. Sports like snowboarding and skateboarding are called extreme sports. Extreme sports can be dangerous. But these sports are sometimes more exciting to watch. Surfing is also an extreme sport. There are magazines and video games that are all about the sport of surfing.

Some people do extreme sports when they are three or four years old. They practice a lot because it is difficult.

Most extreme sports are not team sports. People do them for fun. And now you can make money and do these sports as a job.

Then you can watch them on TV. People love to watch extreme sports!
