

Name:		Date:
-------	--	-------	--

Let it Snow! vocabulary word match

Theme: Canadian Winter

Instructions: Match the words from the Vocabulary List with their definitions. Match the sounds with the Vocabulary words.

A	blizzard
B	accumulation
C	flurries
D	thaw
E	snowdrift
F	whiteout
G	snowball
H	snowflake
I	slush
J	sleet

	a single piece of falling snow (noun) snow that is partly melted on the ground, and messy (noun) snow falling and wind blowing so it's hard to see (noun) snow blown into a pile by the wind (noun) blowing snow that makes it hard for a driver to see the road (noun)
	the amount of snow that has fallen and not melted (noun) falling snow mixed with rain (noun)
	a small amount of falling snow (noun) packed snow sometimes used to throw at people for fun (noun) change from snow to water (verb)

Sentences

Instructions: Use the word from the list below to fill in the spaces in the sentences. A word should be used only once, but not every word will be used.

blizzard	accumulation	flurries	thaw	snowdrift
whiteout	snowball	snowflake	slush	sleet

1. There were just a few _____ today – not much snow fell at all.
2. The temperature was just around 0° C. The falling snow was now changing to _____.
3. Suddenly there was a _____. John couldn't see where he was driving!
4. The kids loved jumping into the big _____ at the side of their house.
5. After the snowstorm had stopped, there was an _____ of 10 cm.
6. It's best to stay inside and keep warm during a _____.
7. Matty made a nice big _____, ready to throw at his friend Jim.
8. The temperature warmed up a lot. Now the snow on the streets turned to _____.

What are the two words that are not used above? Write them in the boxes:

--	--

Write one sentence each, using them:

9. _____.
10. _____.

© 2021 Fred Koop Design