THE NEW PUPPY

(After Kathleen N. Daly)

Part I

Here are some new words:

new [nju:] — новый
good [gʊd] — хороший
call [kɔ:l] — называть

very – очень little – маленький know – знать
think – думать
ask – спрашивать
name – имя
nice – милый

Johnny has got a new puppy. It's very little. It's a baby. It's black and white. It's very nice.

Johnny knows that all puppies have got names. He thinks of a name for his puppy. He thinks, and thinks, and thinks. Then he asks his sister Nelly:

"Do you think Rex is a good name for the puppy?"

"No, I don't think so. Let's call him Spot."

"OK. I like the name," says Johnny. "So Spot is his name and he is my new friend."

True or false?

1. Johnny has got a new puppy.
2. The puppy is white and brown.
3. The puppy is very little.
4. Johnny asks his sister Rex to think of a name for the puppy.
5. His sister likes the name "Rex".
6. Johnny calls his puppy Spot.

LIVEWORKSHEETS