prə¸nʌn.siˈeɪ. ʃən: STRESS IN COMPOUND NOUNS

A. Match each of the words on the left with a word on the right to form a compound noun. Write the correct letter in the brackets.

a)	Rain	( ) beat
b)	Fire	( ) flower
c)	House	( ) box
d)	Thunder	( ) pool
e)	Tool	( ) board
f)	Sun	( ) storm
g)	Bed	( ) room
h)	White	( ) work
i)	Swimming	( ) coat
j)	Heart	( ) fly

B. Complete each sentence by using the compound nouns of the first activity. Practice pronunciation by using the Cambridge dictionary.

1. Don't forget to wear your_____ and boots! It's raining cats and dogs outside, so try not to get wet.
2. The weather forecast has predicted a _____ this weekend, so we need to be careful.
3. _____ look like little light bulbs in the nights.
4. Can you give me the hammer from the _____ that is over there?
5. We need to do the _____ this weekend. I think I can feel the dirtiness and smell the sand.
6. Last week my boyfriend gave me _____ as a present. Although I hate flowers, I had to accept it.
7. That girl makes my _____ elevate, my body sweats and it also makes me act like a fool.
8. I don't like to clean my _____ everyday. It so exhausting!
9. There is a new _____, but I hate to wear bathing suits in public places.
10. Don't forget to clean the _____. The next teacher will be using it for his class.

C. Make then more sentences using these words.

By Maria Saavedra

LIVEWORKSHEETS