

A. Match each of the words on the left with a word on the right to form a compound noun. Write the correct letter in the brackets.

- | | |
|-------------|------------|
| a) Rain | () beat |
| b) Fire | () flower |
| c) House | () box |
| d) Thunder | () pool |
| e) Tool | () board |
| f) Sun | () storm |
| g) Bed | () room |
| h) White | () work |
| i) Swimming | () coat |
| j) Heart | () fly |

B. Complete each sentence by using the compound nouns of the first activity. Practice pronunciation by using the Cambridge dictionary.

- Don't forget to wear your _____ and boots! It's raining cats and dogs outside, so try not to get wet.
- The weather forecast has predicted a _____ this weekend, so we need to be careful.
- _____ look like little light bulbs in the nights.
- Can you give me the hammer from the _____ that is over there?
- We need to do the _____ this weekend. I think I can feel the dirtiness and smell the sand.
- Last week my boyfriend gave me _____ as a present. Although I hate flowers, I had to accept it.
- That girl makes my _____ elevate, my body sweats and it also makes me act like a fool.
- I don't like to clean my _____ everyday. It so exhausting!
- There is a new _____, but I hate to wear bathing suits in public places.
- Don't forget to clean the _____. The next teacher will be using it for his class.

C. Make then more sentences using these words.

By Maria Saavedra