PART I: LISTENING

LISTENING I: Listen and complete the notes taken by a student. You do not need all the words.

Job interview – managers meet you and (1) _____ more about you
Best candidate = (2) _____ , clever and (3) _____

Prepare for the interview:

- wear (4) _____ clothes
- (5) _____ good and healthy
- bring documents
- don't be (6) _____ (go to bed (7) _____)
- (8) _____ about the company online
- find out about the salary

Interview (9) _____ :

- your job experience = Where did you (10) _____ before? / What did you do?
- Why are you interested in the job?

LISTENING II:

1. Listen to the radio programme and choose the correct answer (a, b or c).

1. Who is Ellen Lee?

a. a book author

b. a college student

c. a radio presenter

2. How can feng shui help students?

a. It can make them happy.

b. It can help improve their grades.

c. It can help them get slim.

3. Where does feng shui come from?

a. China

b. Sweden

c. Fiji

4. Feng shui is about

a. gardening.

b. organizing your space.

c. furniture in bedrooms.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. We can guess that 'dorms' means

a. classrooms.

b. a place where students eat.

c. a place where students work and sleep.

2. Listen again and tick (✓) the five tips you hear.

1. Change your bed so that your feet don't face the bedroom door. .....
2. Change your dining-room table so you can see the kitchen. .....
3. Keep your room clean. .....
4. Make sure your desk is tidy when you study. .....
5. Paint the walls green. .....
6. Put plants in your room. .....
7. Keep the windows open in the summer. .....
8. Use red and orange to decorate the room. .....

LISTENING III: Listen to the recording. Are the statements true (T) or false (F)?

1. The student wants to paint her room white. .....
2. Her friend does not like green. .....
3. The armchair and the curtains are blue. .....
4. The students also want to paint the kitchen. .....
5. The students agree that red is the best colour for the living room. .....

LIVEWORKSHEETS