When I was _____ years old
I _____ thinking how cool it would be
When we were goin' on an _____ hour drive
If I could just _____ TV
And I'd-a given _____
To have my own Pac-Man _____ at home
I used to _____ to get a ride down to the arcade
And now I've got it on my _____

Hey, glory, glory, hallelujah
Welcome to the future

My _____ was in World War II
He fought against the _____
He wrote a hundred _____ to my grandma
Mailed them from his base in the _____
I _____ they could see this now
The world they saved has _____, you know
'Cause I was on a _____ chat this morning
With a company in _____

Hey, every day's a _____
Welcome to the _____

Look around, it's all so _____
(Hey) Wherever we were goin', well we're here
(Hey) So many things I _____ thought I'd see
Happening right in _____ of me

I had a _____ in school
Running back on the football _____
They burned a _____ in his front yard
For asking out the homecoming _____
I thought about him _____
And everybody who's seen what he's _____
From a woman on a _____
To a man with a _____

Hey, _____ Martin Luther
Welcome to the future

Hey, glory, glory, hallelujah
Welcome to the future
