My name's Ava. Last weekend, we decided to see a musical. There weren't any seats left for the matinee, so we went to the evening performance. We walked to the theatre, and I was very excited! The music was really beautiful. Everyone in the audience thought the musical was very funny, but some parts of it were scary. At the end, the actors came on stage and everyone clapped and cheered loudly. I loved it. It's the best musical I've ever seen. Now I want to be an actor!
