

Read the paragraphs of the following text and identify the verbs that should be conjugated in the third person singular.

Kinds of boats

There are many kinds of boats.

1.- One kind of boat is called a sailboat. A sailboat use the wind to move. Wind make a sailboat move in the water. The wind push the sailboat. Wind fill the sails. The sailboat move when the wind blows.

2. One kind of boat is called a motorboat. A motorboat use a motor to move. The motor give power to the boat. The motorboat move when the motor is running. The motorboat make a loud noise.

3. One kind of boat is called a rowboat. A rowboat need people to move it. People make a rowboat move in the water. People use oar to move a rowboat. Oars are long and flat. Oars go into the water. A rowboat move when people use the oars.

As you can see, there are many kinds of boats.